ELEVEN NEW BAGATELLES
(ELF NEUE BAGATELLEN)

Edited by Eugen d'Albert

LUDWIG van BEETHOVEN, Op.119

1) These Bagatelles are seldom played—never in public. This is unfortunate, for, properly performed, they are by no means ungrateful. They form excellent examples of the master's work of the last period. The first Bagatelle is to be played simply, not too fast, and without any additions.

2) Expressively, with warmth.
3) Play the variation of the theme carefully but unpretentiously.
Andante con moto

4) Calm and resigned.
5) With precise rhythm like a folksong.
À l'Allemande

IV

Andante cantabile

7) Simply, without undue expression.
V

Risoluto

 Alla Siciliana would be an appropriate title for this little piece.
9) Play the introduction in free, rhapsodic style.

10) In pastoral, simple style. Do not make the sixteenths too short, and have careful regard for the rhythmic divisions.
17) This excellent example of Beethoven's last period forms a glorious conclusion to these charming pieces. Render this impromptu with seriousness and devotion.
12) Play throughout with much expression and a singing tone. Use no pedal.
13) Rapid waltz-tempo.
14) In these two measures retard a little.
15) Again a tempo.
16) Playfully, coquettishly, but always with simplicity.
17) This excellent example of Beethoven's last period forms a glorious conclusion to these charming pieces. Render this impromptu with seriousness and devotion.
